BLACK IS THE COLOUR

(Capo 3rd Fret)

Am F G Am
Black is the colour of my true love's hair.
F G Am
Her lips are like some roses fair
F G Am
She had the sweetest smile and the gentlest hands
F G Am
And I love the ground whereon she stands.

I love my love and well she knows
I love the ground whereon she goes
I wish the day it soon would come
When she and I could be as one

I go to the Clyde and I mourn and weep
For satisfied I ne'er can be
I write her a letter just a few short lines
And suffer death a thousand times

Black is the colour of my true love's hair.

Her lips are like some roses fair

She had the sweetest smile and the gentlest hands

And I love the ground whereon she stands.

All For Me Grog

Chorus (and first verse)

D G D
Well it's all for me grog, me jolly jolly grog
A7
It's all for me beer and tobacco
D G D
For I spent all me tin with the lassies drinking gin
G A7 D
Far across the western ocean I must wander

Where is me shirt, my noggin', noggin' shirt?
 It's all gone for beer and tobacco

 For the collar is all worn, and the sleeves they are all torn
 And the tail is looking out for better weather

Chorus

3. Where are me boots, me noggin', noggin' boots?

They're all gone for beer and tobacco

For the heels they are worn out and the toes are kicked about

And the soles are looking out for better weather

Chorus

4. Where is me bed, me noggin' noggin bed It's all gone for beer and tobacco Well I lent it to a whore and the mattress is all wore And the springs are looking out for better whether.

Chorus

5. Well I'm sick in the head and I haven't been to bed Since I came ashore with me plunder I've seen centipedes and snakes and I'm full of pains and aches And I'll think I'll make a path for way out yonder

Chorus

6. Where is me wench, me noggin' noggin' wench
She's all gone for beer and tobacco
Well her (clap) is all worn out and her (clap) is knocked about
And her (clap) is looking out for better whether.

Well it's all for me grog, me jolly jolly grog
It's all for me beer and tobacco
Well I spent all me loot in a house of ill repute
And I think I'll have to go back there tomorrow.

Chorus

Rosin the Beau

words and music Traditional

I've traveled all over this world,

And now to another I go.

And I know that good quarters are waiting

D To welcome old Rosin the Beau.

To welcome old Rosin the Beau.

To welcome old Rosin the Beau

And I know that good quarters are waiting

To welcome old Rosin the Beau.

When I'm dead and laid out on the counter A voice you will hear from below, Saying "Send down a hogshead of whisky To drink with old Rosin the Beau.

To drink with old Rosin the Beau". (x2) Saying "Send down a hogshead of whisky To drink with old Rosin the Beau".

Then get a half dozen stout fellows And stack them all up in a row Let them drink out of half gallon bottles To the memory of Rosin the Beau

To the memory of Rosin the Beau (x2) Let them drink out of half gallon bottles To the memory of Rosin the Beau

Then get a half dozen stout fellows And let them all stagger and go And dig a great hole in the meadow And in it put Rosin the Beau.

And in it put Rosin the Beau. (x2) And dig a great hole in the meadow And in it put Rosin the Beau.

Then get ye a couple of bottles. Put one at me head and me toe. With a diamond ring scratch upon 'em The name of old Rosin the Beau.

The name of old Rosin the Beau. (x2) With a diamond ring scratch upon 'em The name of old Rosin the Beau.

I feel that old tyrant approaching, That cruel remorseless old foe, And I lift up me glass in his honour. Take a drink with old Rosin the Beau.

Take a drink with old Rosin the Beau. (x2) And I lift up me glass in his honour. Take a drink with old Rosin the Beau.

Whiskey In The Jar

G Em
As I was going over the far famed Kerry mountains,
C G
I met with Captain Farrel and his money he was counting.
G Em
I first produced my pistol and then produced my rapier,
C G

Saying 'Stand and deliver for I am a bold deceiver'.

Chorus

D
Musha ring am a do ama dah
G
Whack fol the daddy o,
C
Whack fol the daddy o,
D
G
There's whiskey in the jar.

He counted out his money and it made a pretty penny I put it in my pocket and I gave it to my Jenny She sighed and she swore that she never would deceive me But the devil take the women for they never can be easy

Chorus

I went into my chamber all for to take a slumber, I dreamt of gold and jewels and for sure it was no wonder. But Jenny drew my charges, she filled them up with water, She sent for Captain Farrel to be ready for the slaughter.

Chorus

'Twas early in the morning, before I rose to travel Up comes a band of footmen and likewise Captain Farrel I then produced my pistol for she stole away my rapier But I couldn't shoot the water, so a prisoner I was taken

Chorus

If anyone can aid me, it's my brother in the army,
If I but knew his station be it Cork or in Killarney.
And if he'd come and join me, we'd go roving in Kilkenny.
I swear he'd treat me fairer than my darling sporting Jenny.

Chorus

Now some men take delight in the drinking and the roving, But others take delight in the gambling and the smoking. But I take delight in the juice of the barley. And courting pretty fair maids in the morning bright and early.

Chorus (repeat twice)

Wild Rover

G
I've been a wild rover for many a year,
D
G
And I spent all my money on whiskey and beer,
C
But now I've returned with gold in great store,
D
G
And I never will play the wild rover no more.

Chorus
D
D7
And it's no, nay, never
D
No, nay, never, no more,
C
Will I play the rover
D
G
Nay never, no more.

I went down to an ale house I used to frequent, And I told the landlady my money was spent. I asked her for credit, but she answered me "Nay. Such custom like yours I could have any day."

Chorus

I took from my pocket ten sovereigns bright, And the landlady's eyes opened wide with delight, She said, "I have whiskeys and wines of the best, And I'll take you upstairs, and I'll show you the rest.

Chorus

I'll go home to my parents, confess what I've done, And I'll ask them to pardon their prodigal son. And if they caress me as oft times before, I never will play the wild rover no more!

> Chorus Repeat First Verse Chorus (2x)

The Unicorn Song

words and music Shel Silverstein, new verse Andrew McKee (CAPO on First Fret Key F)

E B7

A long time ago, when the Earth was green

Е

There was more kinds of animals than you've ever seen

Α

They'd run around free while the Earth was being born

E B7 I

And the loveliest of all was the unicorn

E B7

There was green alligators and long-necked geese

E

Some humpty backed camels and some chimpanzees

Α

Some cats and rats and elephants, but sure as you're born

E B7 E

The loveliest of all was the unicorn

The Lord seen some sinning and it gave Him pain And He says, "Stand back, I'm going to make it rain" He says, "Hey Noah, I'll tell you what to do Build me a floating zoo, and take some of those...

Green alligators and long-necked geese
Some humpty backed camels and some chimpanzees
Some cats and rats and elephants, but sure as you're born
Don't you forget My unicorns

Old Noah was there to answer the call He finished up making the ark just as the rain started to fall He marched the animals two by two And he called out as they came through Hey Lord,

I've got green alligators and long-necked geese Some humpty backed camels and some chimpanzees Some cats and rats and elephants, but Lord, I'm so forlorn I just can't find no unicorns"

And Noah looked out through the driving rain
Them unicorns were hiding, playing silly games
Kicking and splashing while the rain was falling
Oh, them silly unicorns
There was green alligators and long-necked geese
Some humpty backed camels and some chimpanzees
Noah cried, "Close the door because the rain is falling
And we just can't wait for no unicorns"

The Unicorn Song

The ark started moving, it drifted with the tide
The unicorns looked up from the rocks and they cried
And the waters came down and sort of floated them away
That's why you never see unicorns to this very day

You'll see green alligators and long-necked geese Some humpty backed camels and some chimpanzees Some cats and rats and elephants, but sure as you're born You're never gonna see no unicorns

[New Lyrics]

Now you might think this is the ending to the song, But I'll have to tell you friends that in fact your wrong You see, Unicorns are magical, so when the rain started pouring, They grew themselves some wings and they took to soaring.

You'll see green alligators and long-necked geese Some humpty backed camels and some chimpanzees But if you're looking for the unicorns, don't be forlorn, The second star to the right and straight on until morning.

SPANISH LADY

(Capo 2nd Fret - Key: A)

G Em

As I went down to Dublin city,

; D

At the hour of twelve at night,

G En

Who should I see but a Spanish lady,

Washing her feet by candlelight.

G Em

First she washed them, then she dried them

6 Em C

Over a fire of amber coal,

Em

In all my life I ne'er did see

A maid so sweet about the soul

Chorus

G Em

Whack fol the toora, toora lady

Whack fol the foora loora lay

As I came back through Dublin city
At the hour of half past eight
Who should I spy but the Spanish lady
Brushing her hair in the broad daylight.
First she tossed it, then she brushed it,
On her lap was a silver comb
In all my life I ne'er did see
A maid so fair since I did roam.

Chorus

As I went back through Dublin city
As the sun began to set
Who should I spy but the Spanish lady
Catching a moth in a golden net.
When she saw me then she fled me
Lifting her petticoat over her knee
In all my life I ne'er did see
A maid so shy as the Spanish lady.

Chorus

I've wandered north and I've wandered south
Through Stonybatter and Patrick's Close
Up and around the Gloucester Diamond
And back by Napper Tandy's house.
Old age has laid her hand on me
Cold as a fire of ashy coals
In all my life I ne'er did see
A maid so sweet as the Spanish lady. Chorus

Jug Of Punch

One evening in the month of June

As I was sitting with my glass and spoon

G
A small bird sat on an ivy bunch
And the song he sang was "The Jug Of Punch."

Too ra loo ra loo, too ra loo ra lay,
too ra loo ra loo, too ra loo ra lay

And the song he sang was "The Jug Of Punch."

What more diversion can a man desire?
Than to sit him down by an alehouse fire
Upon his knee a pretty wench
Aye And upon the table a jug of punch.

Too ra loo ra loo, too ra loo ra lay, too ra loo ra loo, too ra loo ra lay
Upon his knee a pretty wench
Aye And on the table a jug of punch.

Let the doctors come with all their art
They'll make no impression upon my heart
Even a cripple forgets his hunch
When he's snug outside of a jug of punch.

Too ra loo ra loo, too ra loo ra lay,

T too ra loo ra loo, too ra loo ra lay

Even a cripple forgets his hunch

When he's snug outside of a jug of punch.

And if I get drunk, well, me money's me own
And them don't like me they can leave me alone

I'll chune me fiddle and I'll rosin me bow And I'll be welcome wherever I go.

Too ra loo ra loo, too ra loo ra lay,

T oo ra loo ra loo, too ra loo ra lay

I'll chune me fiddle and I'll rosin me bow

And I'll be welcome wherever I go.

And when I'm dead and in my grave

No costly tombstone will I crave

Just lay me down in my native peat

With a jug of punch at my head and feet.

Too ra loo ra loo, too ra loo ra lay,
Too ra loo ra loo, too ra loo ra lay
Just lay me down in my native peat
With a jug of punch at my head and feet.

The Irish Rover

(Capo on 3rd Fret)

G

On the fourth of July eighteen hundred and six

G

D

We set sail from the sweet Cobh of Cork

G

We were sailing away with a cargo of bricks

G

For the grand city hall in New York

G

Twas an elegant craft, she was rigged fore and aft

G

And how the trade winds drove her

She could stand a great blast in her twenty seven masts

G

And we called her the Irish Rover

There was Barney McGee from the banks of the Lee
There was Hogan from County Tyrone
There was Johnny McGuirk who was scared stiff of work
And a chap from Westmeath called Malone
There was Slugger O'Toole who was drunk as a rule
And fighting Bill Tracy from Dover
And your man Mick McCann from the banks of the Bann
Was the skipper of the Irish Rover

We had one million bags of the best Sligo rags
We had two million barrels of stones
We had three million sides of old blind horses hides
We had four million barrels of bones
We had five million hogs, six million dogs
We had seven million barrels of porter
We had eight million bales of old nanny goat tails
In the hold of the Irish Rover

We had sailed seven years when the measels broke out
And our ship lost it's way in the fog
Then the whole of the crew was reduced down to two
Just myself and the captain's old dog
Then the ship struck a rock, oh Lord what a shock
The boat, it was flipped right over Turned nine times around and the poor old dog was drowned. I'm the last of the Irish Rover

The Sick Note – Why Patty's not at work Today

	E B7 E
Verse 1:	Dear Sir I write these words to tell you of my plight A E B7
	And at the time of writing I am not a pretty sight $f A \qquad \qquad f E \qquad \qquad f A \qquad \qquad f C\#m$
	My body is all black and blue, my face a deadly gray E B7 E
	And I write these words to say why Paddy's not at work today
Verse 2:	While working on the fourteenth floor, some bricks I had to clear And to throw them down from off the top seemed quite a good idea But the foreman wasn't very pleased, he beeing an awful sod He said I had to cart them down the ladder in me hod
Verse 3:	Well, clearing all these brick by hand, it seemed so very slow So I hoisted up a barrel and secured the rope below But in my haste to do the job, I was too blind to see That a barrel full of building bricks is heavier than me
Verse 4:	So when I had untied the rope, the barrel fell like lead And clinging tightly to the rope I started up instead I took off like a rocket and to my dismay I found That halfway up I met the bloody barrel coming down
Verse 5:	Well the barrel broke my shoulder as on to the ground it sped And when I reached the top I banged the pulley with my head I held on tight, though numb with shock from this almighty blow And the barrel spilled out half its load fourteen floors below
Verse 6:	Now when those building bricks fell from the barrel to the floor I then outweighed the barrel so I started down once more I held on tightly to the rope as I flew to the ground And I landed on those broken bricks that were all scattered round
Verse 7:	Well as I lay there on the deck I thought I'd passed the worst But when the barrel reached the top, that's when the bottom burst A shower of bricks came down on me, I knew I had no hope In all of this confusion, I let go the bloody rope
Verse 8:	Well the barrel being heavier, it started down once more And landed right on top of me as I lay on the floor It broke three ribs and my left arm, and I can only say That I hope you'll understand why Paddy's not at work today

Mull of Kintyre

Intro: A A A A D Mull of Kintyre, oh mist rolling in from the sea My desire is always to be here Oh Mull of Kintyre (bass:A B C#) Far have I travelled, and much have I seen Dark distant mountains with valleys of green (bass:A B C#) Past painted deserts, the sunset's on fire E E7 A As he carries me home to the Mull of Kintyre CHORUS AAAA (KEY CHANGE:) D D G G D D G G D D D Sweep through the heather like deer in the glen Carry me back to the days I knew then Nights when we sang like a heavenly choir Of the life and the times of the Mull of Kintyre Mull of Kintyre, oh mist rolling in from the sea My desire is always to be here Oh Mull of Kintyre D D A A D D A A (Return to original key) Smiles in the sunshine and tears in the rain Still take me back where my memories remain Flickering embers grow higher and higher As they carry me back to the Mull of Kintyre CHORUS 2nd CHORUS (KEY CHANGE)

Whisky, You're the Devil

Chorus G Whiskey you're the devil You're leading me astray G A7 D Over the hills and mountains and to Americae You're sweeter, stronger, decenter, You're spunkier than tae D G Oh, whiskey you're my darlin' drunk or sober Verses G Oh now, brave boys, we're on the march D And off to Portugal and Spain The drums are beating, banners flying A7 The devil a-home will come tonight D Love, fare thee well, with me Tithery eye the doodelum da Me tithery eye, the doodelum the da Me rikes fall tour a laddie Oh there's whiskey in the jar The French are fighting boldly Men dying hot and coldly Gives every man his flask of powder His farlock on his shoulder Love, fare thee well with me

Tithery eye the doodelum da Me tithery eye, the doodelum the da Me rikes fall tour a laddie Oh there's wiskey in the jar

Said the mother, Do not wrong me
Don't take my daughter from me
For if you do, I will torment you
And after death a ghost will haunt you
Love, fare thee well with me
Tithery eye the doodelum da
Me tithery eye, the doodelum the da
Me rikes fall tour a laddie
Oh there's wiskey in the jar

Finnegans Wake

Verse 1:	C Am F G Tim Finnegan lived in Walkin Street, a gentleman Irish mighty odd C Am F G C Well he had a tongue both rich and sweet an' to rise in the world he carried a hod C Am C Am Ah but Tim had a sort of tipplin way with the love of the liquor he was born C Am F G C And to send him on his way each day he'd a drop of the craythur ev'ry morn
Ref.:	C Am F G Whack fol the dah now dance to yer parner around the flure yer trotters shake C Am F G C Wasn't it the truth I told you? Lots of fun at Finnegan's Wake
Verse 2:	One morning Tim was rather full, his head felt heavy which made him shake He fell off the ladder and he broke his skull and they carried him home his corpse to wake Well they rolled him up in a nice clean sheet and they laid him out upon the bed With a bottle of whiskey at his feet and a barrel of porter at his head
Verse 3: Ref.:	Well his friends assembled at the wake and Mrs. Finnegan called for lunch Well first they brought in tay and cake, then pipes, tobacco and brandy punch Then Widow Malone began to cry 'Such a lovely corpse, did you ever see Arrah, Tim Mavourneen, why did you die?' 'Will ye hould your gob?' said Molly McGee
Verse 4:	Well Mary O'Connor took up the job 'Biddy' says she 'you're wrong, I'm sure Well Biddy gave her a belt in the gob and left her sprawling on the floor Well civil war did then engage, woman to woman and man to man Shillelagh law was all the rage and a row and a ruction soon began
Verse 5:	Well Tim Maloney raised his head, when a bottle of whiskey flew at him He ducked and, landing on the bed, the whiskey scattered over Tim Bedad he revives, see how he rises Tim Finnegan rising in the bed Saying "Whittle your whiskey around like blazes t'underin' Jaysus, do ye think I'm dead?"

Hay da diddle did doo dal day
G
Hay da diddle diddle doo, hay da diddle diddle day
G
Hay da diddle diddle doo, hay da diddle diddle day
G
Hay da diddle did doo dal day

G C G D

Let grasses grow and waters flow in a free and easy way
G C G D G

But give me enough of the rare old stuff that's made near Galway Bay
G Em

Come gaugers all from Donegal, from Sligo and Leitrim too
G C G D G

We'll give them the slip and we'll take a sip of the real old Mountain Dew

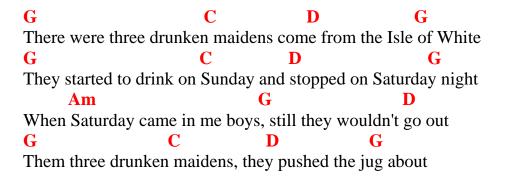

Chorus:

At the foot of the hill there's a neat little still, where the smoke curls up the sky By a whiff of the smell you can plainly tell, there's a poitin still close by Oh it fills the air with a perfume rare and betwixt both me and you As home we roll, we can drink a bowl or a bucket of Mountain Dew Chorus:

Now learned men who use the pen have wrote the praises high Of the sweet poitin from Ireland green, destilled from wheat and rye Away with pills, it will cure all ills of the Pagan, Christian or Jew So take off your coat and grease your throat with the real old Mountain Dew

Chorus:

Three Drunken Maidens

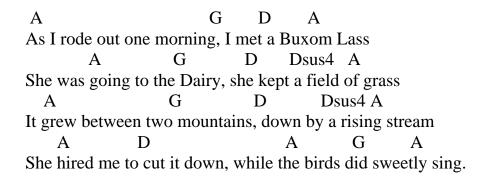

There's woodcock and pheasant, there's partridge and hare There's all sorts of dainties, no scarcity was there They had forty jugs of beer me boys, but still they wouldn't go out And them three drunken maidens, they pushed the jug about

And up comes the landlord, he's asking for his pay It is a forty pound bill, me boys, these girls have got to pay That's ten pounds apiece, me boys, but still they wouldn't go out And them three drunken maidens, they pushed the jug about.

Oh where are your feather hats, your mantles rich and fine We left them in the ale house in tankards of good wine And where are your maidenheads, you maidens frisk and gay We left them in the alehousee when we were up to pay

Buxom Lass

I said my handsome fair maid, what wages will you give? For mowing is hard labor and it's far from here I live She said if you do please me, I solemnly do swear I'll pay a crown an acre and plenty of strong beer.

I said my handsome fair maid, I like your wages well And if I mow your meadow down, you shall say its done well My scythe is in good order, it lately has been honed My buxom lass, I'll cut your grass, close unto the ground.

With courage like a lion, I entered to her field I swore I'd mow her meadow down before that I did yield But before I mowed a rood of ground, my scythe it bent and broke She said my man you must give in, you're tired of your work.

I said my handsome fair maid, do not on me frown For if I stay the summer through, I still can't mow it down It is such pleasant weather, there bears such a crop of grass It's watered by a spring below, that makes it grow so fast.

She said my man you must give in for energy you lack And mowing is hard labor and weakening to the back Yes mowing is hard labor and you must it forsake But round my little meadow, you may use your rake.

Still Gonna Die

So your taking better care of your body, becoming more aware of your body, responding to your bodies needs, everything you hear and read about diets, nutrition, and sleeping position, and detoxifying the system and buying machines that they advertise to help you exercise, herbs to revitalize you if your traumatized, soaps that will sanitize, spays to deodorize, liquids to neutralize, acids and pesticides, free weights to maximize your strength and muscle size, shots that will immunize, pills to reenergize you but remember that for all your pain and gain eventually the story ends the same

So you quit smoking but your still gonna die, cut out coking but your still gonna die Eliminate everything fatty or fried, and you get real healthy but your still gonna die

Stop drinking booze and your still gonna die, stay away from Kool's and son your still gonna die You can cut out coffee and never get high but your still gonna, still gonna, still gonna die

Your still gonna, still gonna die, still gonna, still gonna, still gonna die You can even give a roller one more try but when the music is over your still gonna die

Put seat belts in your car your still gonna die, cut nicotine and tar your still gonna die

You can exercise that cellulite off of your thigh, get slimmer and trimmer but your still gonna die

Stop kissing and tell your still gonna die, you can eat a lot of oat bran but your still gonna die You can search for UFO's up in the sky, they might fly you to Mars where your still gonna die

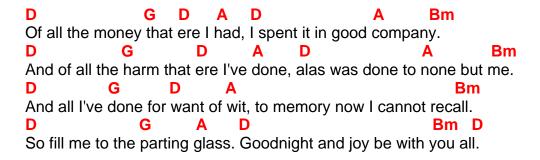

Your still gonna, still gonna die, still gonna, still gonna, still gonna die And all the Reeboks and Nikes and Diggers you buy, you can jog up to heaven and your still gonna die

Drink Ginseng tonic your still gonna die, try high colonics your still gonna die You can have yourself frozen suspended in time, but when they do thaw you out your still gonna die

You can have safe sex your still gonna die, you can switch to Crest but your still gonna die You can get rid of stress, get a lot of rest, get an aids test, enroll if Estes Move out west where it's sunny and dry, and you'll live to be a hundred but your still gonna die

Your still gonna, still gonna die, still gonna, still gonna die So you better have some fun before you say bye-bye Cause your still gonna, still gonna, still gonna still gonna, Still gonna, still gonna die

The Parting Glass

Of all the comrades that ere I had, they're sorry for my going away, And of all the sweethearts that ere I had, they wish me one more day to stay, But since it falls unto my lot that I should rise while you should not, I will gently rise and I'll softly call, "Goodnight and joy be with you all!"

Oh, if I had money enough to spend and leisure time to sit awhile There is a fair maid in this town that sorely has my heart beguiled Her rosey cheeks and ruby lips, she alone has my heart in thrall. So fill me to the parting glass. Goodnight and joy be with you all.

Holy Ground

C G C G C
Fare thee well, my lovely Dinah, a thousand times adieu.

F C G
For were going away from the Holy Ground and the girls we all love true.

C G C F
We will sail the salt sea over and we'll return for sure,

C G C
To see again the girls we love and the Holy Ground once more.

(Shouted) Fine girl you are!

C G C
(Sung) You're the girl I do adore,

F C G C
And still I live in hopes to see the Holy Ground once more.

(Shouted) Fine girl you are!

And now the storm is raging and we are far from shore; And the good old ship is tossing about and the rigging is all tore. And the secrets of my mind my love you're the girl I do adore And still I live in hopes to see the Holy Ground once more.

(Shouted) Fine girl you are!

And now the storm is over and we are safe and well We will go into a public house and we'll sit and drink like hell. We will drink strong ale and porter and we'll make the rafters roar, And when our money is all spent we'll go to sea once more.

(Shouted) Fine girl you are! (Sung) You're the girl I do adore, And still I live in hopes to see the Holy Ground once more.

(Shouted) Fine girl you are!

THE JOLLY TINKER

(Capo on 2nd Fret)

G F G
As i went down a shady lane, at a door i chanced to knock

Have you any pots or kettles, with rusty holes to block

Well indeed i have, don't you know i have

To me right-forloora-laddie, well indeed i have

The missus came out to the door and she asked me to come in

Said you're welcome jolly tinker and i hope you've brought your tin

Well indeed i did, don't you know i did To me right-forloora-laddie, well indeed i did

She took me through the kitchen, and she led me through the hall And the servants cried "the devil" has he come to block us all.

Well indeed i have, don't you know i have To me right-forloora-laddie, well indeed i have

She took me up the stairs me lads, to show me what to do Then she fell on the feather bed, and i fell on it too.

> Well indeed i did, don't you know i did To me right-forloora-laddie, well indeed i did

She then picked up the frying pan, and she began to knock For to let the servants know me lads, that i was at me work

> Well indeed i was, don't you know i was To me right-forloora-laddie, well indeed i was

She put her hand into her pocket, and she pulled out twenty pounds, Take this me jolly tinker, and we'll have another round

> Well indeed we will, don't you know we will To me right-forloora-laddie, well indeed we will

Well i've been a jolly tinker now, for forty years or more And but such a rusty hole as that i never blocked before

> Well indeed i didn't, don't you know i didn't To me right-forloora-laddie, well indeed i didn't

And I wish I was at home in dear old Ireland.

Then meself and a hundred more to Americay sailed o'er,
Our fortune to be making we were thinking.
When we landed in Yankee land, shoved a musket in our hand,
Saying, 'Paddy, you must go and fight for Lincoln.'

General Meahar to us said,'If you get shot or lose your head,
Every murdered soul of you will get a pension.'
In the war I lost me leg, all I've now is a wooden peg;
By my soul it is the truth to you I mention.

Then raise the harp of Erin, boys, the flag we all revere--We'll fight and fall beneath its folds, like Irish volunteers!

When I was driven form my home by an oppressor's hand, I cut my sticks and greased my brogues, and came o'erto this land. I found a home and many friends, and some that I love dear; Be jabbers! I'll stick to them like bricks and an Irish volunteer.

Then fill your glasses up, my boys, and drink a heartycheer,
To the land of our adoption and the Irish volunteer!

Then fill your glasses up, my boys, and drink a heartycheer,
To the land of our adoption and the Irish volunteer!

Now when the traitors in the south commenced a warlike raid, I quickly then laid down my hod, to the devil went my spade! To a recruiting-office then I went, that happened to be near, And joined the good old "Sixty-ninth," like an Irish volunteer.

Then fill the ranks and march away!-no traitors do we fear; We'll drive them all to blazes, says the Irish volunteer.

Then fill the ranks and march away!-no traitors do we fear; We'll drive them all to blazes, says the Irish volunteer.

When the Prince of Wales came over here, and made a hubbaboo,
Oh, everybody turned out, you know, in gold and tinsel too;
But then the good old Sixty-ninth didn't like these lords or peers-They wouldn't give a damn for kings, the Irish volunteers!

We love the land of Liberty, its laws we will revere, "But the divil take nobility!" says the Irish volunteer!

We love the land of Liberty, its laws we will revere, "But the divil take nobility!" says the Irish volunteer!

Now if the traitors in the South should ever cross our roads, We'll drive them to the divil, as Saint Patrick did the toads; We'll give them all short nooses that come just below the ears, Made strong and good of Irish hemp by Irish volunteers.

Then here's to brave McClellan, whom the army now reveres--He'll lead us on to victory, the Irish volunteers.

Then here's to brave McClellan, whom the army now reveres--He'll lead us on to victory, the Irish volunteers.

Now fill your glasses up, my boys, a toast come drink with me, May Erin's Harp and the Starry Flag united ever be; May traitors quake, and rebels shake, and tremble in their fears, When next they meet the Yankee boys and Irish volunteers!

God bless the name of Washington! that name this land reveres; Success to Meagher and Nugent, and their Irish volunteers

Opinions of Paddy Magee

I'm Paddy Magee, sir, from Ballinahee, sir,

Sure, only for that, I'd a walked all the way!

C

He talked of America's freedom and glory;

D
"Begorra," says I, "that's the country for me!"

C
G
So, to end a long story, I've now come before ye,

C
G

When Ireland was needing, and famine was feeding,

To give the opinions of Paddy Magee.

And thousands were dying for something to ate, 'Twas America's daughters that sent over the waters

The ships that were loaded with corn and wheat:
And Irishmen sure will forever remember,
The vessels that carried the flag of the free;
And the land that befriended, they'll die to defend it,

And that's the opinions of Paddy Magee.

I'm sure none are boulder the musket to shoulder,

Enlisting to learn the soldiering trade-With Corcoran fighting, in Meagher delighting,
They swell up the ranks of the Irish Brigade.
With Columbia defying the bold British Lion,
The sons of old Ireland forever shall be;
I'll have no intervention, if that's their intention-And that's the opinions of Paddy Magee.

John Bull, ye old divil, ye'd bether keep civil! Remember the story of 'Seventy-six, When Washington glorious he slathered the tories;

Away from Columbia you then cut your sticks.

And if once again you're inclined to be meddling,

There's a city that's called New Orleans, d'ye see.

Where Hickory Jackson he drove off the Saxon-Now that's the opinions of Paddy Magee.

Though now we're in trouble, it's only a bubble, We'll soon make the foes of the Union retire; Foreign knaves that would meddle had better skedaddle,

For them Uncle Sam has a taste of Greek fire!

They'll find if they try it, Columbia's a giant,

And victory perched on the flag of the free;

For the American nation can whale all creation

The Boys of the Irish Brigade

Key: D Chords: D, G, D, A (CAPO on first fret = key Eb)

What for should I sing you of Roman or Greek,
Or the boys we hear tell of in story?
Come match me for fighting, for frolic, or freak,
An Irishman's reign in his glory;
For Ajax, and Hector, and bold Agamemnon,
Were up to the tricks of our trade, O,
But the rollicking boys, for war, ladies and noise,
The boys of the Irish Brigade, O!

(Break)

What for should I sing you of Helen or Troy,
Or the mischief that came by her flirting?
There's Biddy M'Clinchy the pride of Fermoy,
Twice as much of a Helen, that's certain.
Then for Venus, so famous, or Queen Cleopatra,
Bad luck to the word should be said, O,
By the rollicking boys, for war, ladies and noise,
The Boys of the Irish Brigade, O!

(Break)

What for should I sing you of classical fun,
Or of games, whether Grecian or Persian?
Sure the Curragh's the place where the knowing one's done,
And Mallow that flogs for diversion.
For fighting, for drinking, for ladies and all,
No time like our times e'er was made, O,
By the rollicking boys, for war, ladies and noise,
The boys of the Irish Brigade, O!

(Short Break)

By the rollicking boys, for war, ladies and noise,

And did you leave a wife or a sweetheart behind, In some loyal heart is your memory enshrined, And though you died back in 1916, To that loyal heart you're forever 19. Or are you a stranger without even a name, Forever enshrined behind some old glass pane, In an old photograph all torn tattered and stained, And faded to yellow in a brown leather frame.

Chorus

The sun's shining down on these green fields of France, The warm wind blows gently and the red poppies dance, The trenches have vanished long under the plow No gas, no barbed wire, no guns firing now.
But here in this graveyard it's still "No Man's Land",
The countless white crosses in mute witness stand,
To man's blind indifference to his fellow man,
And a whole generation that were butchered and damned.

Chorus

And I can't help but wonder, oh Willie McBride
Do all those who lie here know why they die,
Did you really believe them when they told you the cause
Did they really believe that this war would end wars.
Well, the suffering, the sorrow, the glory, the shame
The killing and dying it was all done in vain,
Oh Willie McBride it all happened again,
And again, and again, and again, and again.

Health to the Company

Kind friends and companions, come join me in rhyme Come lift up your voices in chorus with mine Let us drink and be merry, all grief to refrain For we may and might never all meet here again

Here's a health to the company and one to my lass Let us drink and be merry all out of one glass Let us drink and be merry, all grief to refrain For we may and might never all meet here again

Here's a health to the dear lass that I love so well
Her style and her beauty, sure none can excel
There's a smile upon her countenance as she sits on my knee
Sure there's no one in in this wide world as happy as we

Our ship lies at harbor, she's ready to dock I hope she's safe landed without any shock If ever we should meet again by land or by sea I will always remember your kindness to me

Black Velvet Band

In a neat little town they call Belfast apprenticed to trade I was bound And many an hour of sweet happiness I spent in that neat little town Till bad misfortune came over me and caused me to stray from the land Far away from me friends and relations me followed the Black Velvet Band Her eyes they shown like the diamonds You'd think she was queen of the land And her hair hung over her shoulder Tied up with a Black Velvet Band Well I went out strolling one evening not meaning to go very far When I met with a fickle-some damsel she was plying her trade in a bar When a watch she took from a cutomer and slipped it right into me hand And the law it came and arrested me bad luck to your Black Velvet Band This mornin' before judge and jury a trial I had to appear And the judge he says "me young fellow" the case against you is quite clear And seven long years is your sentence you're going to Van Daemons Land Far away from your friends and relations and follow the Black Velvet Band So come all ye jolly young fellows I'll have you take warnin' from me Whenever you're into the liquor me lads beware of the pretty colleens For they'll fill you with whiskey and porter till you are not able to stand And the very next thing that you know me lads you've landed in Van Daemon's land

Alternative lyrics (as sung by The Dubliners)

Well, in a neat little town they call Belfast Apprentice to trade I was bound Many an hour's sweet happiness Have I spent in that neat little town A sad misfortune came over me Which caused me to stray from the land Far away from my friends and relations Betrayed by the black velvet band

(Chorus):

Her eyes they shone like diamonds
I thought her the queen of the land
And her hair it hung over her shoulder
Tied up with a black velvet band

I took a stroll down Broadway
Meaning not long for to stay
When who should I meet but this pretty fair maid
Comes a tripping along the highway
She was both fair and handsome
Her neck it was just like a swan's
And her hair it hung over her shoulder
Tied up with a black velvet band
(Chorus)

I took a stroll with this pretty fair maid And a gentleman passing us by Well I knew she meant the doing of him By the look in her roguish black eye A goldwatch she took from his pocket And placed it right in to my hand And the very first thing that I said was Bad luck to the black velvet band

(Chorus)

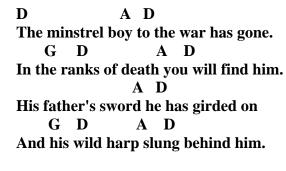

Before the judge and the jury
Next morning I had to appear
The judge he says to me: "Young man,
your case it is proven clear
We'll give you seven years penal servitude, to be spent faraway from the land
Far away from your friends and companions, betrayed by the black velvet band"

(Chorus)

So come all you jolly young fellows
A warning take by me
When you are out on the town me lads, beware of them pretty colleens
For they feed you with strong drink, "Oh yeah"
'til you are unable to stand
And the very next thing that you'll know is you've landed in Van Diemens Land
(Chorus)

The Minstrel Boy

(Thomas Moore)

Bm A G A G A D

"Land of song," said the warrior bard,

"Though all the world betray thee,
A D

One sword at least thy roads shall guard,

One faithDful heart shall praise thee."

The minstrel fell, but the foeman's chain Could not bring that proud soul under. The harp he loved never spoke again, For he tore its cords asunder,

And said, "No chain shall sully thee Thou soul of love and bravery. My songs remain for the pure and free. They shall never sound in slavery."

During the American Civil War, a third verse was added.

The minstrel boy will return one day, When we hear the news, we will cheer it. The minstrel boy will return we pray, Torn in body, perhaps, but not in spirit. Then may he play his harp in peace, In a world such as Heaven intended, For every quarrel of Man must cease, And every battle shall be ended.

Tippin' It Up To Nancy / Marrowbones

Oh, there's been a woman in our town, a woman you ought know well She dearly loved her husband and another man twice as well

CHORUS

With me right finnickineerio, me tip finnick a wall With me right finnickineerio, We're tipping it up to Nancy

She went down to the chemist shop some remedies for to buy, Have you anything in your chemist shop to make me old man blind?

"Give him eggs and marrowbones and make him suck them all, Before he has the last one sucked, he won't see you at all."

She gave him eggs and marrowbones and made him suck them all, Before he had the last one sucked, he couldn't see her at all.

If in this world I cannot see, here I cannot stay.

I'd drown myself; "Come on," says she, "and I'll show you the way"

She led him to the river, she led him to the brim

But sly enough of Martin, it was him that shoved her in.

She swam through the river, she swam through the brine "Oh Martin, dear Martin. Don't leave me behind."

"Oh Martin, dear Martin. Don't leave me behind."

"Yerra shut up outa that ye silly aul fool, ye know poor Martin is blind"

There's nine in me family and none of them is my own, I wish that each and every man would come and claim his own.

Kelly the boy from Killarn

What's the news, what's the news O my bold Shelmalier?,
With your long-barrelled gun of the sea?
Say what wind from the south blows his messenger here
With a hymn of the dawn for the free?
"Goodly news, goodly news, do I bring, youth of Forth;
Goodly news shall you hear, Bargy man!
For the boys march at morn from the South to the North,
Led by Kelly, the Boy from Killanne!"

"Tell me who is that giant with gold curling hair He who rides at the head of your band?
Seven feet is his height, with some inches to spare,
And he looks like a king in command!" "Ah, my lads, that's the pride of the bold Shelmaliers,
'Mongst our greatest of heroes, a Man! Fling your beavers aloft and give three ringing cheers
For John Kelly, the Boy from Killanne!"

Enniscorthy's in flames, and old Wexford is won,
And tomorrow the Barrow we will cross,
On a hill o'er the town we have planted a gun
That will batter the gateways to Ross.
All the Forth men and Bargy men march o'er the heath,
With brave Harvey to lead on the van;
But the foremost of all in the grim Gap of Death
Will be Kelly, the Boy from Killanne!"

But the gold sun of Freedom grew darkened at Ross,
And it set by the Slaney's red waves;
And poor Wexford, stript naked, hung high on a cross,
With her heart pierced by traitors and slaves!
Glory O! Glory O! to her brave sons who died
For the cause of long-down-trodden man!
Glory O! to Mount Leinster's own darling and pride Dauntless Kelly, the Boy from Killanne!"

Song for Ireland

Walking all the day
Near tall towers where falcons build their nests
Silver-winged they fly
They know the call of freedom in their breasts
Saw Black Head against the sky
Where twisted rocks they run to the sea

Living on your western shore
Saw summer sunsets, asked for more
I stood by your Atlantic Sea
And sang a song for Ireland

Drinking all the day
In old pubs where fiddlers love to play
Saw one touch the bow
He played a reel which seemed so grand and gay
Stood on Dingle Beach and cast
In wild foam we found Atlantic bass

Talking all the day
With true friends who try to make you stay
Telling jokes and news
Singing songs to pass the time away
Watched the Galway salmon run
Like silver dancing, darting in the sun

Dreaming in the night
I saw a land where no one had to fight
Waking in your dawn
I saw you crying in the morning light
Sleeping where the falcons fly
They twist and turn all in your air-blue sky

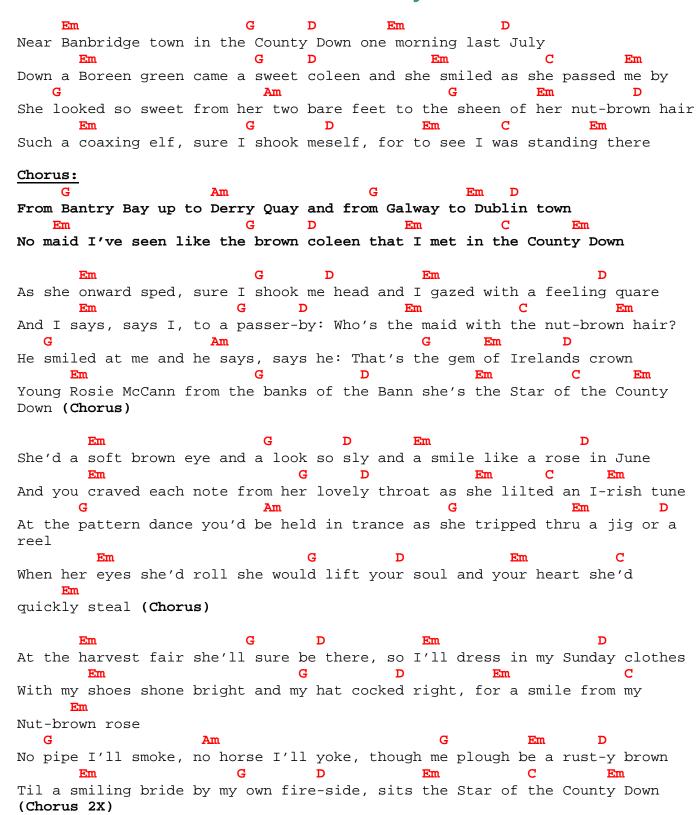

The Girl I Left Behind Me

The dames of France are fond and free
And Flemish lips are willing,
And sof the maids of Italy
While Spanish eyes are thrilling.
Still, though I bask beneath their smiles
Their charms all fail to bind me;
And my heart goes back to erin's isle
To the girl I left behind me.

She says,"My own dear love, come home
My friends are rich and many
Or else with you abroad I'll roam
A soldier stout as any.
If you'll not come nor let me go
I'll think you have resigned me."
My heart near broke when I answered,"No."
To the girl I left behind me.

For never shall my true love brave
A life of war and toiling.
And never, as a skulking slave
I'll tread my native soil on.
But were it free, or to be freed
The battle's close would find me
To Ireland bound, nor message need
From the girl I left behind me.

Wild Mountain Thyme

Francis McPeake (D, G, Bm, Em)

Oh, the summertime is coming, And the trees are sweetly blooming And the wild mountain thyme, Grows around the bloom' heather.

Will ya go lassie go?

Chorus:

And we'll all go together
To pluck wild mountain thyme
All around the bloomin' heather.
Will ya go lassie go?

I will build my love a bower, By yon pure crystal fountain And on it I will pile, All the flowers of the mountain. Will ya go lassie go?

Chorus:

If my true love, will ne'r go with me, I would surely find another When the wild mountain thyme, Grows around the bloomin' heather Will ya go lassie go?

Chorus:

Sally Gardens

It was down by the Sally Gardens, my love and I did meet. She crossed the Sally Gardens with little snow-white feet. She bid me take love easy, as the leaves grow on the tree, But I was young and foolish, and with her did not agree.

In a field down by the river, my love and I did stand And on my leaning shoulder, she laid her snow-white hand. She bid me take life easy, as the grass grows on the weirs But I was young and foolish, and now am full of tears.

Down by the Sally Gardens, my love and I did meet. She crossed the Sally Gardens with little snow-white feet. She bid me take love easy, as the leaves grow on the tree, But I was young and foolish, and with her did not agree.

RED Is the Rose

Chorus:

Red is the Rose that yonder garden grows
And fair is the lily of the valley
And clear is the water the flows from the Boyne
And my love is fairer then any.

Come over the hill by bonny Irish Lad
Come over the hill to your darling
You pick the red rose and I'll make the vow
And I'll be your true love forever.

Chorus

Red is the Rose that yonder garden grows
And fair is the lily of the valley
And clear is the water the flows from the Boyne
And my love is fairer then any.

Chorus

'Twas done by Killarny's green fields that we strayed
The moon and the starts brightly shinning
The moon shown it' rays on his golden locks of hair
And he swore he'd be my love forever.

Chorus

Red is the Rose that yonder garden grows
And fair is the lily of the valley
And clear is the water the flows from the Boyne
And my love is fairer then any.

Chorus

A-Roving

Chorus:

A-rovin', a-rovin', since rovin's been my ruin, I'll go no more a-rovin' with you, fair maid.

Verses: (Those usually sung these days)

In Amsterdam I met a maid,
Mark well what I do say!
In Amsterdam I met a maid,
And she was mistress of her trade;
I'll go no more a-rovin' with you, fair maid.

Her eyes are like the stars so bright, Her face is fair, her step is light.

Her cheeks are like the rosebuds red, A wealth of hair upon her head.

Her face had beauty rare to see, But she was never true to me.

And the less-known verses:

In Amsterdam I met a maid,
Mark well what I do say!
In Amsterdam I met a maid,
And she was mistress of her trade;
I'll go no more a-rovin' with you, fair maid.

I met this fair maid after dark, She took me to her favorite park.

I put my hand upon her knee, She said, "Young man, you're rather free".

I put my arms about her waist, She said, "Young man, you're in great haste".

I put my hand upon her breast, She said, "The wind's veering South-Southwest".

I pushed her o'er upon her back, 'Twas THEN she let me have me whack!

YARMOUTH TOWN

Use a capo on the second fret (if you want key of A)

Intro: G G G G G C G G G G D G X2

In Yarmouth town there lived a man $\underline{\underline{C}}$ $\underline{\underline{C/b}}$ $\underline{\underline{Am}}$ $\underline{\underline{D}}$ Kept a little tavern by the strand $\underline{\underline{G}}$ $\underline{\underline{Em}}$ $\underline{\underline{C}}$ And the landlord had a daughter fair $\underline{\underline{C}}$ $\underline{\underline{G}}$ $\underline{\underline{Am}}$ $\underline{\underline{D}}$ pretty little thing with the golden hair

G
Won't you come down, won't you come down
G
Won't you come down to Yarmouth town

One night there came a sailor man
And he asked the daughter for her hand
Oh Why should I marry you she said
I have all I want without being wed
CHORUS X2

But if with me you'd like to linger I'll tie a piece of string all around my finger As you walk by, just pull on the string and I'll come right down and let you in CHORUS X2

Well, the very next day at closing time the sailor man goes off to the strand And as he walks by he pulls on that string She came right down and let him in CHORUS X2

Well, he's never seen such a sight before Cause the string around her finger was all she wore

BREAK: \underline{G} \underline{Em} \underline{C} \underline{Am} \underline{D} \underline{G} \underline{Em} \underline{G} \underline{Em} \underline{C} \underline{Am} \underline{D} CHORUS X2,

The sailor stayed the whole night through and early in the morning went back to his crew, and then he told them about the maiden fair, the pretty little thing with the golden hair. CHORUS X2

Well, the news it soon got around and the very next night in Yarmouth Town there was fifteen sailors pulling on the string and she's come down and she's let them all in. CHORUS X2

So all young men that to Yarmouth go, if you see a pretty girl with her hair hanging low, well, all you've got to do is pull on the string, and she'll come down and she'll let you in. CHORUS X4

Molly Malone

C G
In Dublin's fair city, where the girls are so pretty
C Em Dm G
I first set my eyes on sweet Molly Malone
She wheeled a wheel-barrow through streets broad and narrow
C Em G C
Crying 'Cockles and Mussels a-live, a-live, oh'
C G
A-live, a-live, oh, a-live, a-live, oh
C Em G C
Crying 'Cockles and Mussels a-live, a-live, oh'
She was a fishmonger, but sure 'twas no wonder
For so were her father and mother before.
They both wheeled a barrow through streets broad and narrow

Chorus:

She died of a fever, and no one could save her And that was the end of sweet Molly Malone. Now her ghost wheeles her barrow through streets broad and narrow Crying 'Cockles and Mussels a-live, a-live, oh'

Crying 'Cockles and Mussels a-live, a-live, oh'

Chorus:

Some Say the Devil is Dead

Some say the devil is dead, I say hardly Some say the devil is dead, and buried in Killarney More say he rose again, more say he rose again More say he rose again and joined the British Army

Feed the pigs and milk the cow, and milk the cow, and milk the cow Feed the pigs and milk the cow, early in the morning Cock your leg, oh Paddy dear, Paddy dear I'm over here Cock your leg, oh Paddy dear, it's time to stop your yawning

Some say the devil is dead, I say hardly Some say the devil is dead, and buried in Killarney More say he rose again, more say he rose again More say he rose again and joined the British Army

Katie she is tall and thin, she's tall and thin, and tall and thin Katie she is tall and thin, and like her drops of brandy Drinks it in the bed each night, drinks it in the bed each night Drinks it in the bed each night, it makes her nice and randy

Some say the devil is dead, I say hardly I seen him up in Gus's Bar, drinking with McGinnis More say he rose again, more say he rose again More say he rose again and joined the British Army

The wife she has the hairy thing, a hairy thing, a hairy thing The wife she has the hairy thing, she showed it to me on Sunday She bought it in the furrier's shop, bought it in the furrier's shop She bought it in the furriers's shop, it's going back on Monday

Some say the devil is dead, I say hardly Some say the devil is dead, and buried in Killarney More say he rose again, more say he rose again More say he rose again and joined the British Army

My one's over six feet tall, six feet tall, six feet tall My one's over six feet tall, she likes the sugar candy Goes to bed at six o'clock, goes to bed at six o'clock Goes to bed at six o'clock, she's lazy, fat and dandy

Some say the devil is dead, I say hardly Some say the devil is dead, and buried in Killarney More say he rose again, more say he rose again More say he rose again and joined the British Army

The Lakes of Pontchartrain

(Capo 4th fret)

Em
It was on one fine March morning
I bid New Orleans adieu.
                       Em
And I took the road to Jackson town, me fortune to renew,
                     Em D
I cursed all foreign money,
no credit could I gain,
Which filled me heart with longing for the lakes of Pontchartrain.
                 Em
I sat on board a railway car,
beneath the morning sun,
and I road the roads till evening,
and I laid me down again,
                       Em
All strangers there no friends to me, till a dark girl towards me came,
And I fell in love with a Creole girl,
by the lakes of Pontchartrain.
I said, "My pretty Creole girl,
me money here's no good,
                          Em
But if it weren't for the alligators,
I would sleep out in the woods".
"You're welcome here kind stranger,

our house is very plain.
But we never turn a stranger out,
From the lakes of Pontchartrain."
G
She took me into her mamie's house,
and treated me right well,
                Em D
The hair upon her shoulder in jet black ringlets fell.
                    Em
To try and paint her beauty,
I'm sure 'twould be in vain,
So handsome was my Creole girl,
By the lakes of Pontchartrain.
I asked her would she'd marry me,
she said it could never be,
         D
              Em
For she had got another,
and he was off at sea.
                      Em
She said that she would wait for him and faithful she would remain.
Waiting for her sailor,
By the lakes of Pontchartrain.
So fare you well my Bonny ol girl,
I never will see you no more,
         Em
I wont forget your kindness

But I know that I'	'll return so	me day.

D C G
So fare you well my own true love,
D
And when I return, united we will be.
G C G
It's not the leaving of Liverpool that grieves me
D7 G

But my darling, it's when I think of thee.

I'm off to California
By way of the stormy Cape Horn,
And I will send you a letter, love,
When I am homeward bound.

I've shipped on a Yankee clipper ship, Davy Crockett is her name, And Burgess is the captain of her And they say she is a floating hell.

I'm bound away to leave you, Goodbye, my love, goodbye. There ain't but one thing that grieves me, That's leaving you behind.

Oh the sun is on the harbor, love, And I wish I could remain, For I know it will be some long time Before I see you again.

Lord Of The Dance

G Em

I danced in the morning

I am the Lord of the Dance said He,

G C G

And I'll lead you all

Am

Wherever you may be,

C D7

And I'll lead you all

 \mathbf{C}

In the dance said He.

2. I danced for the scribe

And the pharisee

But they would not dance

And they wouldn't follow me,

I danced for the fishermen

For James and John

They came with me

And the dance went on.

(refrain)

3. I danced on the Sabbath

And I cured the lame

The holy people said

It was a shame

They whipped and they stripped

And they hung me high

And they left me there

On a Cross to die.

(refrain)

4. I danced on a Friday (slow down)

When the sky turned black

It's hard to dance

With the world on your back

They buried my body

And they thought I'd gone

But I am the dance

And I still go on. (Speed up)

(refrain)

5. They cut me down

And I leapt up high

I am the life

That'll never, never die

I'll live in you

If you'll live in me

I am the Lord of the dance said He.

Am-G-Am-G-Am-Am

I've just come down from the Isle of Skye I'm no very big but I'm awful shy All the lassies shout as I walk by, "Donald, Where's Your Trousers?"

Chorus

Let the wind blow high and the wind blow low
Through the streets in my kilt I go
All the lassies say, "Hello!
Donald, where's your trousers?"

A lassie took me to a ball And It was slippery in the hall I was afeared that I may fall Because I nae had on trousers

Chorus

{ Slowly spoken}

Now I went down to London town
To have some fun in the underground
All the Ladies turned their heads around, saying,
{sexy spoken with effect}
"Donald, where's your trousers?"

Chorus

To where the kilt is mighty lite It is not wrong I know its right The Islanders would get a fright "If they saw me in my trousers"

Chorus

The lassies love me every one
But they must catch me if they can
You canna put the breeks on a highland man,
"But I don't where the trousers?"

Rhythm: waltz

There are times when I am blue thinking of you and me At midnight on the water and how it used to be. The stars among the trees in some old memories I know At midnight on the water not so long ago.

Though they're gone like floating dreams,

The scenes were there as in a mirror

Made by the moon upon the water,

And our love was never stronger.

But the picture was broken by the waves we left behind,

At midnight on the water once upon a time.

There are times when I am blue thinking of you and me At midnight on the water and how it used to be. In the stillness of the lake where these thoughts take me again, At midnight on the water, do you remember when?

Though they're gone like floating dreams,

The scenes were there as in a mirror

Made by the moon upon the water,

And our love was never stronger.

But the picture was broken by the waves we left behind,

Jolly Beggar

D G A7

It's ah the Jolly beggar man came tripping over the plains
D G D A7

He came up to a farmer's door some lodging for to gain
D G A7

Well the farmer's daughter she came down and viewed him cheek to chin
D G D A7

She says he's a handsome man I pray you take him in

Chorus:

We'll go no more a-rovin

Let the moon shine so bright

We'll go no more a-rovin

He would not lie within the barn nor yet within the byre But he would in the corner lie down by the kitchen fire And so the beggar's bed was made of good clean sheets and hay And down beside the kitchen fire the jolly beggar lay.

Chorus

Well the farmers daughter she came down to bolt the kitchen door And there she saw the beggar standing naked on the floor He took the daughter in his arms and to the bed he ran Kind sir she says go easy now you'll waken our good man

Chorus

She lie as still as any mouse as if she had been dead The beggar he jumped in with her, he stole her maidenhead

Chorus

Oh sir you are no beggar man you are some gentleman For you have stole my maidenhead and I am quite undone I am no lord, I am no squire of beggars I be one And beggars they be robbers all, so you are quite undone

Chorus

She took the bed in both her hands and threw it at the wall Said go you with it you beggar man me maidenhead and all

Arthur McBride

Version 1

G C G Am C I had a first cousin called Arthur McBride, he and I took a stroll down by the seaside
G C G Am C D A-seeking good fortune and what might betide, 'twas just as the day was a-dawning G C G Am C And then after resting we both took a tramp, we met seargent Harper and corporal Cramp G D G Besides the wee drummer who beat up for camp with his rowdy-dow-dow in the morning

He says 'My young fellows, if you will enlist, a Guinee you quickly will have in your fist

Besides a Crown for to kick up the dust and drink the King's health in the morning' Had we been such fools as to take the advance the wee bitter morning we had run to chance

For you'd think it no scruple to send us to France where we would be killed in the morning

He says 'My young fellows, if I hear but one word, I instantly now will out with my sword

And into your bodies as strength will afford, so now, my gay devils, take warning' But Arthur and I we took in the odds, we gave them no chance to lunge out their swords

Our whacking shillelaghs came over their heads and paid them right smart in the morning

As for the wee drummer we rifled his pouch and we made a football of his rowdy-dow-

And into the ocean to rock and to row and bade him a tedious returning As for the old rapier that hung by his side we flung it as far as we could in the tide

To the devil I bid you says Arthur McBride to temper your steel in the morning

ARTHUR MCBRIDE

Says he, "my young fellows if you will enlist It's 10 guineas in gold I will slip in your fist I'll throw in a crown for to kick up the dust And drink the king's health in the morning. For a soldier he leads a very fine life And he always is blessed with a charming young wife While other poor fellows have sorrow and strife And sup on thin gruel in the mornin'"

Says Arthur, "I wouldn't be proud of yer clothes for you only lend out them, now as I suppose And dare not change them one might if ye dare For you know you'd be flogged in the mornin' And we have no desire to take yer advance For all of the dangers we'd not take the chance And you'd have no scruples and send us to France Where you know we'd be shot in the mornin'"

"Oh, no" says the Sergeant, "if I hear one more word I quickly right now will draw out me sword And into your bodies as strength will afford So now, me young devils, take warning". But Arthur and I we counted the odds And we scarce give them chance for to launch out their blades With our trusty shillelaghs we bashed in their heads And paid them right smart in the morning.

And the rusty old rapiers that hung by their sides We flung them as far as we could in the tide "Now take that, ye devils," cried Arthur McBride "And temper your steel in the morning".

And the little young drummer, we flattened his pouch And we made a football of his rowdy-dow-dow

Kicked it into the ocean for to rock and to roll And bade it a devious returning.

Oh, Me and me cousin, one Arthur McBride, As we went a walkin down by the seaside A-seeking good fortune and what might betide, It being on Christmas mornin'

Plains of Kildare

Words and Music by Andy Irvine

Come all you bold sportsmen and listen to my story
It's about noble Stewball that gallant racing pony
Arthur Marble was the man that first brought Stewball here
For to run with Miss Griesel on the Plains of Kildare.
O the fame of his actions we've heard of before
But now he is challenged by young Mrs. Gore
For to run with Miss Griesel that handsome grey mare
For ten thousand gold guineas on the Plains of Kildare.

And the cattle they were brought out with saddle whip and bridle

And the gentlemen did shout at the sight of the gallant riders

And in viewing the cattle just as they came there

O they all laid their money on the Monaghan grey mare.

And the order it was given and away they did fly
Stewball like an arrow the grey mare passed by
And if you had've been there for to see them going round
You'd've thought to your heart their feet ne'er touched the ground.

And when at last they came to half way round the course

Stewball and his rider began to discourse

Says Stewball to the rider "Can you tell to me

How far is that grey mare this moment from me."

Says the rider to Stewball "You run in great style
You're ahead of the grey mare almost half a mile
And if you keep your running I vow and I swear
That you never will be beaten by the Monaghan grey mare."

The last winning post, Stewball passed it quite handy
Horse and rider both called for sherry wine and brandy
And they drank up a health to the noble grey mare
For she emptied their pockets on the Plains of Kildare.

Big Strong Man (My Brother Sylveste)

words and music Traditional

Have you heard about the big strong man?
He lived in a caravan.
Have you heard about the Jeffrey Johnson fight?
Oh, Lord what a hell of a fight.
You can take all of the heavyweights you've got.
We've got a lad that can beat the whole lot.
He used to ring bells in the belfry,
Now he's gonna fight Jack Demspey.

Chorus:

That was my brother Sylvest' (What's he got?)
A row of forty medals on his chest (big chest!)
He killed fifty bad men in the west; he knows no rest.
Think of a man, hells' fire, don't push, just shove,
Plenty of room for you and me.
He's got an arm like a leg (a ladies' leg!)
And a punch that would sink a battleship (big ship!)
It takes all of the Army and the Navy to put the wind up Sylvest'.

Now, he thought he'd take a trip to Italy.
He thought that he'd go by sea.
He dove off the harbor in New York,
And swam like a great big shark.
He saw the Lusitania in distress.
He put the Lusitania on his chest.
He drank all of the water in the sea,
And he walked all the way to Italy.

Chorus

He thought he take a trip to old Japan.

They turned out a big brass band.

You can take all of the instruments you've got,

We got a lad that can play the whole lot.

And the old church bells will ring (Hells bells!)

The old church choir will sing (Hells fire!)

They all turned out to say farewell to my big brother Sylvest'.

Rare Oul' Times (Peter Saint John, Saint Music)

C F C Am F
Raised on songs and stories, the heroes of reknown
C Em F C G G7
The passing tales and glories that once was Dublin Town
C F C Am F
That hallowed halls and houses, the haunting children's rhymes
C Em F C G7 C
That once was Dublin City in the rare ould times

F C Am F
Ring a ring a rosy - as the light declines
C Em F C G7 C
I remember Dublin City - in the rare ould times

Well, me name it is Sean Dempsey, as Dublin as can be Born hard and late in Pimlico in a house that ceased to be By trade I was a cooper, lost out to redundancy Like my house that fell to progress my trade's a memory

And I courted Peggy Dignan, as pretty as you please A rogue and a child of Mary from the Rebel Liberties I lost her to a student chap with skin as black as coal When he took her off to Birmingham, she took away my soul

Chorus

The years have made me bitter, the gargle dims me brain 'Cause Dublin keeps on changing and nothing seems the same The Pillar and the Met have gone, the Royal long since pulled down As the grey unyielding concrete makes a city of my town

Fare thee well sweet Anna Liffey, I can no longer stay And watch the new glass cages that spring up along the quay Me mind's too full of memories, too old, to hear new chimes I'm a part of what was Dublin in the rare ould times

The Hills of Connemara

Gather up the pots and the old tin can,
the mash, the corn, the barley and the bran.
Run like the devil from the excise man,
keep the smoke from risin, Barney.

Keep your eyes well peeled today, the excise man is on his way, searching for the mountain tay in the Hills of Connemara.

CHORUS

Swing to the left and swing to the right, the excise man will dance all night, drinking up the tay till the broad daylight, In the Hills of Connemara.

CHORUS

A gallon for the butcher, a quart for Tom, a bottle for poor old Father John, to help the poor old man along, in the Hills of Connemara.

CHORUS

Stand your ground, it is too late, the excise man is at the gate.
Glory be to God, he's drinking it nate, in the hills of Connemara.
CHORUS (2x)

Whiskey Is The Life Of Man

(Crew sings in Bold)

Oh whiskey is the life of man Always was since the world began

Whiskey-o, Johnny-o Rise her up from down below Whiskey, whiskey-o Up aloft this yard must go John rise her up from down below

Now whiskey made me pawn me clothes And whiskey gave me a broken nose

Whiskey-o, Johnny-o Rise her up from down below Whiskey, whiskey-o Up aloft this yard must go John rise her up from down below

Now whiskey is the life of man Whiskey from an old tin can

Whiskey-o, Johnny-o
Rise her up from down below
Whiskey, whiskey-o
Up aloft this yard must go
John rise her up from down below

I thought I heard the first mate say I treats me crew in a decent way

Whiskey-o, Johnny-o Rise her up from down below Whiskey, whiskey-o Up aloft this yard must go John rise her up from down below

A glass of whiskey all around And a bottle full for the shanty man

Whiskey-o, Johnny-o
Rise her up from down below
Whiskey, whiskey-o
Up aloft this yard must go
John rise her up from down below
UP SHE FLYS!

Barrett's Privateers

Stan Rogers

Oh, the year was 1778 How I wish I was in Sherbrooke now A letter of marque come from the king To the scummiest vessel I'd ever seen

Chorus (Crew Sings):
God damn them all!
I was told we'd cruise the seas for American gold

We'd fire no guns, shed no tears Now I'm a broken man on a Halifax pier The last of Barrett's privateers

Oh, Elcid Barrett cried the town...

How I wish I was in Sherbrooke now

For twenty brave men all fishermen who

Would make for him the Antelope's crew

Ch:

The Antelope sloop was a sickening sight

How I wish I was in Sherbrooke now

She'd a list to the port and and her sails in rags

And the cook in the scuppers with the staggers

and jags

Ch:

On the King's birthday we put to sea

How I wish I was in Sherbrooke now

We were 91 days to Montego Bay

Pumping like madmen all the way

Ch:

On the 96th day we sailed again

How I wish I was in Sherbrooke now

When a bloody great Yankee hove in sight

With our cracked four pounders we made to fight

Ch:

The Yankee lay low down with gold

How I wish I was in Sherbrooke now

She was broad and fat and loose in stays

But to catch her took the Antelope two whole days

Ch:

Then at length we stood two cables away

How I wish I was in Sherbrooke now

Our cracked four pounders made an awful din

But with one fat ball the Yank stove us in

Ch:

The Antelope shook and pitched on her side

How I wish I was in Sherbrooke now

Barrett was smashed like a bowl of eggs

And the main truck carried off both me legs

Ch:

So here I lay in my 23rd year How I wish I was in Sherbrooke nowIt's been 6 years since we sailed away
And I just made Halifax yesterday

8. Chorus
Sailing homeward to Mingulay

Santiano

Santiano gained a day!
Away, Santiano!
Santiano gained a day!
All on the plains of Mexico!

Chorus
Mexico, oh Mexico
Away, Santiano!
Mexico is a place I know
All on the plains of Mexico!

Them yellow-skin gals I do adore With their sparklin' eyes, and their coal black hair

Chorus

Why do them yellow gals love me so?

Because I don't tell 'em all I know

Chorus

Nassau girls ain't got no combs They comb their hair with a kipper's backbone

Chorus

When I was young and in my prime I'd knock those scouse girls two at a time

Chorus

The skipper likes whiskey, the mate likes rum
The crew likes both but we can't get none

Chorus

Times is hard, and the wages low It's time for us to roll and go

Chorus

Leave Her, Johnny Leave Her

Oh the work was hard and the wages low Leave her, Johnny, leave her And now at last ashore well go And its time for us to leave her

Chorus:

Oh Leave her, Johnny, leave her Oh leave her, Johnny, leave her Oh the voyage is done and the winds don't blow

And its time for us to leave her

Oh rotten meat and weevly bread Leave her, Johnny, leave her Oh Pump or Drown the old man said And its time for us to leave her

Ch:

The sails are furled and the anchor is stowed Leave her, Johnny, leave her And no more around Cape Horn well go And its time for us to leave her

Ch:

I thought I heard the old man say
Leave her, Johnny, leave her
You can go ashore and spend your pay
And its time for us to leave her

Ch:

The rats have left, and we the crew
Leave her, Johnny, leave her
And it's time, by Christ, that we did, too
And its time for us to leave her

Ch:

Ch:

The winds were foul and the work was hard....

Leave her, Johnny, leave her

From the Liverpool dock to the London yard....

And its time for us to leave her

Ch:

I hate to sail on this rotten tub Leave her, Johnny, leave her No grog allowed and rotten grub And its time for us to leave her

Ch:

The skipper was bad but the mate was worse Leave her, Johnny, leave her Hed blow you down with a spike and a curse And its time for us to leave her

Ch:

The mate was a bucko an the old man a Turk Leave her, Johnny, leave her The boatswain was a beggar with the middle name o work

And its time for us to leave her

Ch:

The cooks a drunk, he likes to booze
Leave her, Johnny, leave her
Tween him and the mate theres little to choose
And its time for us to leave her

Ch

The old man swears and the mate swears, too
Leave her, Johnny, leave her
The crew all swear and so would you
And its time for us to leave her

Ch:

I thought I heard the old man say
Leave her, Johnny, leave her
You can go ashore and spend your pay
And its time for us to leave her

Ch:

Well make her fast and stow our gear Leave her, Johnny, leave her The gals are a-waiting on the pier And its time for us to leave her

Away Rio

I'll sing us a song, a good song of the sea Away, a Rio!

I'll sing us a song, if you'll sing it with me And we're bound for the Rio Grande,
Singing way, O-Rio!

Away, a Rio!

I'll sing us a song, if you'll sing it with me,
And we're bound for the Rio Grand!

We'll all man the capstan, and walk her around, *Away, a Rio!*And haul up the anchor to this jolly sound, *And we're bound for the Rio Grande,*Singing way, O-Rio!

Away, a Rio
And haul up the anchor to this jolly sound,
And we're bound for the Rio Grand!

Now, the anchor is weighed, and the sails they are set,

Away, a Rio!

Them pretty young girls we can never forget,

And we're bound for the Rio Grande,

Singing way, O-Rio!

Away, a Rio!

Them pretty young girls we can never forget, And we're bound for the Rio Grand!

Now we'll take her nose out over the bar Away, a Rio!

And point her bow for the southern star And we're bound for the Rio Grande,
Singing way, O-Rio!
Away, a Rio!

And point her bow for the southern star And we're bound for the Rio Grand!

A brass knuckled mate, and a rough skipper, too,

Singing way, O-Rio!

Away, a Rio!
A brass knuckled mate, and a rough skipper, too,
And we're bound for the Rio Grand!

Now were carrying black sheep, molasses and rum

Away, a Rio!
To sell them all before winter is come
And we're bound for the Rio Grande,
Singing way, O-Rio!
Away, a Rio!
To sell them all before winter is come
And we're bound for the Rio Grand!

Now farewell to Nancy and farewell to Sue *Away, a Rio!*And you's that is listening...farewell to you *And we're bound for the Rio Grande,*Singing way, O-Rio! *Away, a Rio!*And you's that is listening...farewell to you And we're bound for the Rio Grand!

More Verses:

Come heave up the anchor, let's get it aweigh,

Away, a Rio!

It's got a firm grip, so heave steady, I say,

And we're bound for the Rio Grande,

Singing way, O-Rio!

Away, a Rio!

It's got a firm grip, so heave steady, I say,

And we're bound for the Rio Grand!

Heave with a will, and heave long and strong, Away, a Rio!

Sing a good chorus, for 'tis a good song, And we're bound for the Rio Grande, Singing way, O-Rio!

Away, a Rio!

Sing a good chorus, for 'tis a good song, And we're bound for the Rio Grand!

Heave only one pawl, then 'vast heaving, belay! Away, a Rio!

Heave steady, because we say farewell to-day,

And we're bound for the Rio Grande,

Singing way, O-Rio!

Away, a Rio!

Heave steady, because we say farewell to-day, And we're bound for the Rio Grand!

The chain's up and down, now the bosun did say, Away, a Rio!

Heave up to the hawse-pipe, the anchor's aweigh, And we're bound for the Rio Grande, Singing way, O-Rio!

Away, a Rio!

Heave up to the hawse-pipe, the anchor's aweigh, And we're bound for the Rio Grand!

We'll sing as we heave to the maidens we leave, Away, a Rio!

And you who are listening, good-bye to you,

And we're bound for the Rio Grande,

Singing way, O-Rio!

Away, a Rio!

And you who are listening, good-bye to you, And we're bound for the Rio Grand!

O say, were you ever in Rio Grande?

Away, a Rio!

It's there that the river runs down golden strand;

And we're bound for the Rio Grande,

Singing way, O-Rio!

Away, a Rio!

It's there that the river runs down golden strand; And we're bound for the Rio Grand!

So it's pack up your donkey and get under way, Away, a Rio!

The girls we are leaving can take our half pay.

And we're bound for the Rio Grande,

Singing way, O-Rio!

Away, a Rio!

The girls we are leaving can take our half pay.

And we're bound for the Rio Grand!

Now fill up your glasses and sing fare you well, Away, a Rio!

To all the young lasses who love you so well, And we're bound for the Rio Grande, Singing way, O-Rio!

Away, a Rio!

To all the young lasses who love you so well, And we're bound for the Rio Grand!

Now you Bowery ladies we'd have you to know Away, a Rio!

We're bound to the south'ard, O Lord, let us go!

And we're bound for the Rio Grande,

Singing way, O-Rio!

Away, a Rio!

We're bound to the south'ard, O Lord, let us go! And we're bound for the Rio Grande,

We'll sell our salt cod for molasses and rum Away, a Rio!

And get home again 'fore Thanksgiving has come

And we're bound for the Rio Grande, Singing way, O-Rio!

Away, a Rio!

And get home again 'fore Thanksgiving has come

And we're bound for the Rio Grande,

Donkey Riding

Was you ever in Quebec Launchin' timber from the deck? Where ya break yer bleedin' neck Ridin' on a donkey!

Chorus:

Way hey and away we'll go Donkey riding, donkey riding Way hey and away we'll go Ridin' on a donkey.

Was you ever in Timbucktoo Where the gals are black and blue And they wiggle their bustles too Ridin' on a donkey

Ch:

Was you ever in Valipo
Where the gals put on a show
And they dance with a Roll-an-Go
Ridin'on a donkey

Ch:

Was you ever in Mobile Bay Screwing cotton all the day A dollar a day is a white man's pay Ridin'on a donkey

Ch:

Was you ever in London-town

Where the gals they do come down And the King wears a golden crown Riding on a donkey

Ch:

Was you ever in Miramichi Where ye tie up to a tree, An' the girls sit on yer knee? Ridin'on a donkey

Ch:

Was you ever in Frisco Bay Where the girls all shout, "Hooray! Here comes stan with three months pay" Riding on a donkey.

Ch:

Was you ever 'round Cape Horn Where the weather's never warm? You wished to God you'd never been born Ridin' on a donkey.

Ch:

Was you ever in Providence Where it all seems to make sense That is, until you commence Riding on a donkey

Let The Bullgine Run

Em] Oh the smartest clipper [G] you can [Am] find [G] Heave away, [D] haul away
Is the [Em] Margot Evans of the [G] Blue Cross [Am] Line
[G] So clear away the [D] track and let the [Em] bullgine run!

[Em] Tell me, are you most done?
[G] Heave away, [Am] haul away
[Em] With Liza Lee all [G] on my [Am] knee,
[G] So clear away the [D] track and let the [Em] bullgine run!

O the Margot Evans of the Blue Cross Line, Heave away, haul away She's never a day behind her time So clear away the track and let the bullgine run!

Tell me, are you most done?

Heave away, haul away

With Liza Lee all on my knee,

So clear away the track and let the bullgine run!

Oh, when I come home across the sea,
Heave away, haul away
It's Liza, will you marry me?
So clear away the track and let the bullgine run!

Tell me, are you most done?
Heave away, haul away
With Liza Lee all on my knee,
So clear away the track and let the bullgine run!

Oh the smartest clipper you can find Heave away, haul away Is the Margot Evans of the Blue Cross Line So clear away the track and let the bullgine run!

Herzogin Cecile

(Ken Stephens)

Sailing down the Baltic, where the wreck mark buoys all peal, She's the mightly sailing ship the Herzogin Cecile Cruisin' in the Channel, where the steamers never yield She's the mightly sailing ship the Herzogin Cecile

(chorus)

Herzogin Cecile, Herzogin Cecile She's the mightly sailing ship the Herzogin Cecile

Beatin' down the Biscay where the crew they get no meals She's the mightly sailing ship the Herzogin Cecile Rolling in the doldrums where the slightest wind she'll feel She's the mightly sailing ship the Herzogin Cecile

(chorus)

Roarin' in the forties, where the braces sing like steel
Tackin' in the Tasman Sea, where the winds upon her steal
Runnin' east below the Horn where the mighty sperm whales squeal
Off Tierra Del Fuego, where the albatrosses wheel

(chorus)

Comin' down from Labrador with a load of pine and deal Cruising Caribbean calms, where the flying fish appeal Now she's Falmouth bound for orders, where her passage time's reveal'd A shipload strainin' in her hold, the pull again she'll feel

(chorus)

She's run upon the Bobtail, in the mist, a test of steel
She's hard aground in Sawmile Cove, the rocks have broken her keel
(chorus)

Nancy Whiskey

O, seven long years have I have been weaving
A weaving me a new suit of clothes
And so when I saved me a little money
I took a ramble as you may suppose.

Chorus O whiskey, whiskey, Nancy Whiskey Whiskey, whiskey, Nancy-o.

As I was going up fair London city Young Nancy Whisky I chanced to smell So I thought it proper to call and see her For seven long years I had loved her well

I stepped up boldly, knocked at her window And asked her pardon for being so free, She said: Young man, you are kindly welcome Come in, sit down and keep me company

And when I woke all in the morning
I found myself on some strange bed
I tried to dress but I was not able
For Nancy Whisky had me by the head

I boldly call-ed for the waitress And what's the reckoning I have to pay? Thirty shillings and a sixpence Come pay it down and go your way

I put my hand all in my pocket
And I paid it down in ready coin
And when I'd paid out all her reckoning
It brought my store down to one half-crown

As I went down fair London city
I chanced to meet with a gentlemen
Along with him I spent two and tuppence
Which brought me down to one four-pence

All I've left now is that one four-pence
The very last of my precious store
I'll go back and see my Nancy
Then I'll go home and work for more

Then I'll go back unto my weaving
And there I'll work for seven long years
And if I live for another seven
I'll go back any find my Nancy dear

So come all you weavers now take a warning When you leave off working at the loom For of all the girls in London city Young Nancy Whisky will prove your ruin.

Sally Rachet

Used in tightening braces or raising yards. (Bold is the crew chorus)

Oh, little Sally Rachet, (Haul 'em away!)
She pawned my brand new jacket; (Haul 'em away!)
Sold the ticket. (Haul 'em away!)

Little Nelly Riddle, (Haul 'em away!)
She broke my brand new fiddle; (Haul 'em away!)
Has a hole right up the middle. (Haul 'em away!)
With a hally-ya-ya, (Haul 'em away!)
And a heighdy-ya-ya. (Haul 'em away!)
Oh, little flubbin' Anna, [Chorus continues as above]

She slipped on a banana.

And now she can't play the piyana. [He said it, not me]
With a ... [Refrain repeated after each following verse]
And a ...

Oh, little Milly Skinner, She says she's a beginner, But she prefers it to her dinner.

And little Kimmy Larson, She's married to the Parson, Because they had a little barson.

Little Penny Taylor Swore she'd never touch a sailor: She got harpooned by a whaler!

And little Nessie Tucket, She washes in a bucket. She's a whore, but she don't look it.

Let's get out me fighting cocks now, (Haul 'em away!)
Let's get up and split them blocks now, (Haul 'em away!)
And it's huff boys, and puff boys, (Haul 'em away!)
And now that'll be enough, boys -- (HAUL 'EM AWAY!)

Rolling Down to Old Maui

It's a damned tough life, full of toil and strife
We whalermen undergo.
And we don't give a damn when the gale has stopped

How hard the wind did blow. We're homeward bound! 'Tis a grand old sound

On a good ship taut and free, And we don't give a damn when we drink our rum With the girls on old Maui.

Chorus

Rolling down to old Maui, my boys,
Rolling down to old Maui.
We're homeward bound from the arctic
ground
Rolling home to old Maui.

Once more we sail with a northerly gale
Through the ice and sleet and rain.
And them coconut fronds in them tropic lands

We soon shall see again.
Six hellish months we've passed away
In the cold Kamchatka sea,
And now we're bound from the arctic
ground,
Rolling down to old Maui.

Chorus

We'll heave the lead where old
Diamondhead
Looms up on old Wahoo.
Our mast and yards are sheathed with ice
And our decks are hid from view.
The horrid tiles of the sea-cut ice

That deck the Arctic Sea
Are miles behind in the frozen wind
Since we steered for old Maui.

Chorus

How soft the breeze of the tropic seas
Now the ice is far astern,
And them native maids in them island glades
Are awaiting our return.
Even now their big black eyes look out
Hoping some fine day to see
Our baggy sails running 'fore the gales
Rolling down to old Maui.

Chorus

And now we sail with a favoring gale
Towards our island home.

Our mainmast sprung, our whaling done,
And we ain't got far to roam.

Our stuns'l booms are carried away
What care we for that sound?
A living gale is after us,
Thank God we're homeward bound!

Chorus

And now we're anchored in the bay
With the Kanakas all around
With chants and soft aloha oes
They greet us homeward bound.
And now ashore we'll have good fun
We'll paint them beaches red
Awaking in the arms of a wahine
With a big fat aching head.

Chorus

Old Maui - Version 2

It's a damn tough life full of toil and strife We whalemen undergo.

And we don't give a damn when the day is done

How hard the winds did blow. For we're homeward bound from the Arctic ground

With a good ship, taut and free And we don't give a damn when we drink our rum

With the girls of Old Maui.
Rolling down to Old Maui, me boys
Rolling down to Old Maui
We're homeward bound from the Arctic
ground
Rolling down to Old Maui.

Once more we sail with a northerly gale
Through the ice and wind and rain.
Them native maids, them tropical glades,
We soon shall see again.
Six hellish months have passed away
One the cold Kamchatka Sea,
But now we're bound from the Arctic
ground

Rolling down to Old Maui.
Rolling down to Old Maui, me boys
Rolling down to Old Maui
We're homeward bound from the Arctic
ground
Rolling down to Old Maui.

Once more we sail with a northerly gale
Towards our island home.
Our mainmast sprung, our whaling done,
And we ain't go far to roam.
Our stuns'l bones is carried away
What care we for that sound?
A living gale is after us,
Thank God we're homeward bound.
Rolling down to Old Maui, me boys
Rolling down to Old Maui
We're homeward bound from the Arctic
ground

Rolling down to Old Maui.

How soft the breeze through the island trees.

Now the ice is far astern.

Them native maids, them tropical glades
Is a-waiting our return.

Even now their soft brown eyes look out
Hoping some fine day to see
Our baggy sails runnin' 'fore the gales

Our baggy sails runnin' 'fore the gales Rolling down to Old Maui.

Rolling down to Old Maui, me boys Rolling down to Old Maui We're homeward bound from the Arct

We're homeward bound from the Arctic ground Rolling down to Old Maui.

Rolling Down to Old Mohee

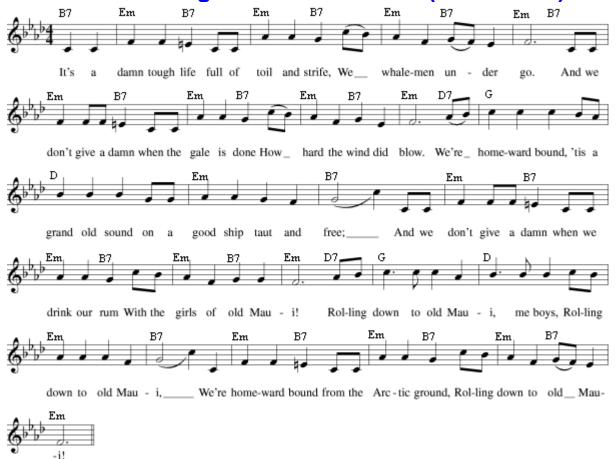

Once more we are waft by the Northern gales
Bounding over the main,
And now the hills of the tropic isles
We soon shall see again.
Five sluggish moons have waxed and waned
Since from the shore sailed we,
Now we are bound from the Arctic ground
Rolling down to old Mohee.
Now we are bound from the Arctic ground
Rolling down to old Mohee.

Through many a blow of frost and snow
And bitter squalls of hail,
Our spars were bent and our canvas rent
As we braved the northern gale.
The horrid isles of ice cut tiles
That deck the Arctic sea,
Are many, many leagues astern
As we sail to old Mohee.

Through many a gale of snow and hail
Our good ship bore away
And in the midst of the moonbeam's kiss
We slept in St. Lawrence Bay.
And many a day we whiled away
In the bold Kamchatka Sea
And we'll think of that as we laugh and chat
With the girls of old Mohee.

An ample share of toil and care
We whalemen undergo;
But when it's over, what care we
How the bitter blast may blow.
We are homeward bound, that joyful sound,
And yet it may not be,
But we'll think of that as we laugh and chat
With the girls of old Mohee.

Rolling Home

Call all hands to man the capstan See the cable running clear Heave away and with a will, boys For new England we will steer

Chorus

Rolling home, rolling home Rolling home across the sea Rolling home to old New England Rolling home dear land to thee

Fare you well, you Spanish maidens
It is time to say adieu
Happy times we've spent together
Happy times we've spent with you

Chorus

"Round Cape Horn one frosty morning And our sails were full of snow Clear your sheets and sway your halyards Swing her out and let her go

Chorus

Up aloft amid the rigging Blows a wild and rushing gale Like a monsoon in the springtime Filling out each well known sail

Chorus

And the waves we leave behind us Seem to murmur as they flow There's a hearty welcome waiting In the land to which you go

Chorus

Many thousand miles behind us Many thousand miles before Ocean lifts her winds to bring us To that well remembered shore

Chorus

Roll The Woodpile Down

Way down south where the cocks do crow
'Way down in Florida
The gals all dance to the old banjo
And we'll roll the woodpile down!

Chorus

Rollin'! Rollin'! Rollin' the whole world 'round That brown girl o' mine's down the Georgia Line And we'll roll the woodpile down!

When I was a young man in me prime
'Way down in Florida
I'd take them yaller gals two at a time.
And we'll roll the woodpile down!

Chorus

We'll roll him high and we'll roll him low 'Way down in Florida
We'll heave him up and away we'll go.
And we'll roll the woodpile down!

Chorus

Oh rouse and bust 'er is the cry
'Way down in Florida
A sailor's wage is never high.
And we'll roll the woodpile down!

Chorus

O Curly goes on the old ran-tan
'Way down in Florida
O Curly's just a down-east man.
And we'll roll the woodpile down!

Chorus

O one more heave and that will do 'Way down in Florida
We're the bullies for to kick 'er through.
And we'll roll the woodpile down!

Chorus

New York Girls (Can You Dance The Polka)

G	C	D	G
As I went down to Broadway one evening last July

And a-way sha	n-ty my Dear An	-nie O, You	New York g	girls, Can you danc	e the Polka
She said, My fine new sailor, Now take me home you may But when we reached her door step she this to me did say, My flashman he's a Yankee with his hair cut short behind He wears a pair of tall sea boots and he sails on the Black Bow line
And a-way shan-ty my Dear An-nie O, You New York girls, Can you dance the Polka
He's homeward bound this evening and with me he will stay So get a move on sailor boy, get cracking on your way
And a-way shan-ty my Dear An-nie O, You New York girls, Can you dance the Polka

And a-way shan-ty my Dear An-nie O, You New York girls, Can you dance the Polka

And a-way shan-ty my Dear An-nie O, You New York girls, Can you dance the Polka

I joined a Yankee whaler and sailed away next morn Don't mess around with women lads, you're safer round Cape Horn

I wrapped me glad rags round me and off to the docks did steer

I'll never court another girl, I'll stick to rum and beer

And a-way shan-ty my Dear An-nie O, You New York girls, Can you dance the Polka
